Had a hard time getting through to you
This time I've had enough
I'm moving on

You were so damn good doing what you should
You spread yourself thin
And you were gone

You just don't hear me
I'm right here talking to you

It's over
Listen to me know
It is over
Over
I can tell you how
Cause it's over
Over
Do you even care that you're letting them down
Was a tough call hitting the ground
But this time I'm coming around.

There is a beauty in making sacrifice
You were late to realize it went too far
All you tried to hide 'cause of all your pride
Finally you hit the ground like a fallen star

Didn't want to lose it
So I had to face the music

It's over
Listen to me know
It is over
Over
I can tell you how
Cause it's over
Over
Can you feel your soul is run to the ground
Was a tough call hitting the ground
But this time I'm coming around.

Now I've found the power
Every minute every hour
