What I really need
Is a little bit of kindness
Just take it all away
I'm all fed up with sadness

Seven days, and and seven nights
I finally realize

When everything seems upside down
Come lose yourself in the rain
When every song goes la la la
You've turned your blues
Into a sweet refrain

I've cried so many nights
I'm not alone here with my madness
Standing face to face
Yet born on different planets

Hold my heart would you please
Take a leap of faith
When everything seems upside down
Come lose yourself in the rain
When every song goes la la la
You've turned your blues
Into a sweet refrain
