Weary heart and worn out shoes
It's time that we sat down
Restless soul no peace of mind
Longing to be found
So take a seat and hold my hand
Seems my soul is bound
I wouldn't be what I am today
If you were not around

Every time that I am fallin'
No one catches me like you do
I wouldn't be where I am today
If you were not around

With you it all falls into place
In this world of thorns
It's like a perfect state of grace
Where new things can be born
You dry the tears from off my face
Like mist will leave the ground
I wouldn't be what I am today
If you were not around

Every time that I am fallin'
No one catches me like you do
I wouldn't be where I am today
If you were not around

Morning comes and I'm up again
To face another day
Walking down this familiar lane
There is no time to stay
Know I will get lost again
Like we do I guess
Listen my friend I will be there too
When your life is a mess

Every time that I am fallin'
No one catches me like you
You give me guidance on my darkest day
I wouldn't be where I am today
If you were not around
I wouldn't be what I am today
Promise you will stay
